STEP 02 OF 10

Understand the Types of Study Abroad Programs

WHAT TO KNOW

Your main options: direct enrollment (you enroll at a local university — the most immersive), exchange (through your home university—s partnership — you pay home tuition), third-party provider programs (which bundle courses, housing, and support — the most guided), and faculty-led short programs (a few weeks with your own professors). Browse and compare options in the K12 Academics directory.

BY THE NUMBERS

Direct enrollment	Exchange	Provider / faculty-led most immersive	pay home tuition	most guided

HOW TO HELP

Match the program to your goals — direct enrollment for immersion, exchange for value, a provider for support, or a faculty-led program for a short taste — then find options in the K12 Academics directory.

STEP 03 OF 10

Understand Credit Transfer & Academics

WHAT TO KNOW

Credits use the credits system (converted for transfer via your home office). Before you go, get your courses pre-approved by your home study-abroad and academic advisors so credits transfer cleanly toward your degree. You—ll receive a transcript to bring home — keep syllabi and coursework in case of later evaluation.

BY THE NUMBERS

credits	Pre-approve	Transcript
the local system	courses before you go	keep syllabi

HOW TO HELP

Protect your credits — get courses pre-approved by your home office, understand credits and local grading, and keep syllabi for transfer.

GOOD TO KNOW

Pre-approve your courses with your home study-abroad and academic advisors before departure — it—s the key to clean credit transfer.

STEP 04 OF 10

Know the Costs & Funding

WHAT TO KNOW

Costs vary by route: exchange students usually pay home tuition; provider programs charge a program fee (bundling tuition, housing, and support); direct enrollment means you pay the program or institution's fees and arrange housing; Uruguay's living costs are moderate (pricier than its neighbours). Uruguay—s cost of living is moderate (pricier than its neighbours). Look into scholarships (the Gilman (US students), Erasmus+ (Europeans), and provider aid), and check whether your financial aid travels with you.

BY THE NUMBERS

Exchange	Provider	Scholarships

HOW TO HELP

Budget by route — exchange (home tuition), provider (one bundled fee), or direct enrollment; Uruguay costs are moderate (pricier than its neighbours). Pursue scholarships and check aid portability.

GOOD TO KNOW

Check whether your home financial aid can be applied to study abroad — many students fund part of the cost this way.

STEP 05 OF 10

Understand the Student Visa & Entry

WHAT TO KNOW

For longer study, you need a student visa/temporary residency, arranged with your host institution; shorter study uses a tourist entry. You—ll typically show proof of acceptance, sufficient funds, housing, and health insurance. Shorter programs often need only a tourist entry (for shorter study). Start early — the process takes time. Confirm current rules with the relevant consulate.

Plan Health, Safety & Insurance

Know your program—s in-country support and emergency contacts before you go — a good provider makes this easy.

STEP 07 OF 10

Prepare Language & Culture

WHAT TO KNOW

The main language is Spanish, and Uruguay is a safe, relaxed place to immerse in Spanish, with a progressive, European-flavored culture. Some English-taught options exist. Housing options include university residences, homestays (great for language), and shared apartments. Embrace the cultural differences — they—re the point.

BY THE NUMBERS

HOW TO HELP

Prepare to immerse — safe, relaxed Spanish immersion (progressive culture), choose housing that fits your goals (a homestay boosts language), and embrace the culture.

A homestay is a fast route to immersion — a homestay is the fastest route to language immersion.

STEP 08 OF 10

Plan the Timeline & Apply

WHAT TO KNOW

Apply well ahead — typically a semester or two before you go. The usual order: meet your home study-abroad office, choose and apply to a program, secure course pre-approval, then arrange your visa, housing, and insurance. Uruguay offers fall, spring, summer, and full-year options. Deadlines and visa processing drive the schedule.
